So...any word of what's going on? (I'm definitely not needed in New Bedford today)

That's a riot! Wood is definitely more important, especially the way things have been going lately with all of our natural disasters and weather phenomenon.

This case may be a plea...I will find out in about 45 minutes, so I will email/call you when I get the final word.

Thanks Sonja!

Today I'm on-call for SFD District and Greenfield District (unlikely to go). Tomorrow I'm on-call for New Bedford District, but they obviously wouldn't need me until after 2pm so I could possibly manage sometime in the morning (plus, you are Superior...). Tomorrow morning I also have a short doctor's appointment at 8:30am in Northampton, and I should be out of there by 8:45/9:00, so I could be down there by about 9:30 or so, depending on traffic. Friday is wide open for me. And if you care about Monday, I've got nothing planned except having 2 cords of wood delivered to my house at 7:30am.

Hi Sonja,

I was called in for trial on this case...how does the rest of your week look?

Hope all is going well.
